

Premier of Ontario - Première ministre de l'Ontario

August 6, 2014

A PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER

On behalf of the Government of Ontario, I am delighted to extend warm greetings to Ontario's vibrant Jamaican Canadian community on the 52nd Jamaican Independence Day.

As Premier, I am so proud of Ontario's diversity. It is a source of strength and dignity. The Jamaican community of Ontario is an essential part of this sweeping cultural landscape. You contribute greatly to the cultural plurality that makes Ontario exceptional.

Thank you to our province's Jamaican Canadian community. Your contributions have helped establish the extraordinary quality of life we enjoy in Ontario. Thank you also for the businesses you build and the jobs you create that so greatly benefit our society and our economy.

This occasion is a wonderful opportunity to honour the richness of Jamaica's history, culture and traditions. It is also a chance to celebrate our province's Jamaican communities and all you bring to the incredible Ontario we have built together.

Please accept my best wishes for a memorable and enjoyable Jamaican Independence Day!
